City Attorney Drawing up Resolutions Calling for Election on Measures

FIRE TRUCK ASKED SOON

Commissioner Henzler Declares There is Urgent Need For Motor Driven Apparatus

Resolutions calling for a special city election are now being prepared by City Attorney H. F. O'Hare and will be submitted to the city commission next Monday night.

The resolutions, prepared by direction of the commission, call for an election on the question of a proposed bond issue of $30,000 for the purchase of a fire truck, repairs to the pesthouse and an incinerator. The date of the election will be fixed Monday night.

The decision to submit the matter to a vote was reached by the commission after consideration for several weeks. There was some division of opinion among commissioners as to the value of an incinerator, and it was decided to let the voters rule on the matter.

Horses Growing Old.
Fire and Police Commissioner Henzler is very anxious to obtain a fire truck for the city. The city will be required to buy a new team of horses in a short time if a truck is not purchased, he said. Too much time is required in getting to fires, with the horses which are growing old.

A modern fire truck, which can also be used as an engine to increase water pressure, costs $11,000 to $13,000. The commissioner also desires to purchase a chassis for a lighter truck for use on some calls.

Estimates were made by Commissioner Thompson and others on the cost of repairs held necessary to place the pesthouse, or detention hospital, in good condition. The work would cost close to $10,000, it is estimated.

Rat Menace Grows.
Much complaint has been made of the dumping grounds south of the city, and a request, was made several months ago by citizens for the purchase of an incinerator to burn city garbage. Reports differ as to the effectiveness of this method of waste disposal.

The city dumping ground, piled with tin cans, boxes and refuse, is said to be thickly populated with rats. Rats have become such a menace to Fargo that special days have been set aside to kill them off. It is said they do $100,000 damage a year in that city. The menace is said to grow in Bismarck and even on farms.

Carpenters are needed tomorrow to finish the work on the forms. All who are willing to donate their services for this finishing-up job are invited to report at the grounds at any time. Voluntary labor on the swimming pool will be credited as a contribution to the fund.

INCOME TAX
SHOWS SLUMP

State to Realize Less Money Than Last Year

The income tax paid in North Dakota this year will be materially lower than last year, according to figures of the state tax commissioners.

The tax commissioner has certified for collection income tax on individuals amounting to $61,472.12 and on corporations of $312,164.12, a total of $373,736.24 as compared to a total of $522,189.99 last year, of which $55,487.15 was for individuals and $476,722.54 for corporations.

A general decrease in corporation earnings is given as the chief cause. The amount certified for this year will be increased somewhat, however, by reports of firms which are allowed to make reports on the basis of their fiscal year, ending July 1. The income tax is payable July 1 and becomes delinquent July 25.

The increase in individual income tax is ascribed to the fact that last year's assessment dividends earned the year previous but paid within the taxing period were exempted. Railroaders, which pay about one-third of the corporation income tax, have announced they will test the validity of the rule of the tax commissioner taxing them upon profits earned in interstate traffic.

CLEVELAND MAN

Former Chief of Tammany Hall
Returns from Ireland to Face Litigation Pressed by Children.

By Newspaper Enterprise.
New York, June 17.—Richard Croker, nightest political boss New York ever had and for 17 years the crowned chieftain of Tammany Hall, is back from Ireland. "I am here," he says, "to fight those boys of mine to a dead end."

Croker and his Cherokee Indian princess bride, Sequoyah, are defendants in six suits brought by Croker's sons, Richard, Jr., and his brother Howard.

One of them is for an accounting; two others are for moneys alleged to have been advanced by son to father, the amounts being $25,000 and $80,000; two more are for the recovery of Westinghouse and Wabash Railroad stock, alleged to be owned and loaned by Richard to his father, and the sixth is for alleged libel.

Croker says that the family trouble is of 30 years' standing, but that his sons began bringing it to public attention only after his marriage to the Indian princess, when he suddenly withdrew a power of attorney from Howard so that he and his wife could manage their own affairs. He says:

"I withdrew this power of attorney only after I had been convinced that Howard was using it contrary to the best interests of all concerned. We did not blame Howard so much," he adds, "as we blame Richard."

In Eightieth Year.
The present litigation, in Croker's eightieth year, is the aftermath of an unsuccessful attempt in April, 1920, to have him declared incompetent. His children were the complainants. In sworn affidavits they charged that he was incapable of managing his own affairs, and completely under the domination of his wife, who he married in 1914.

The circuit court of Florida, in which these affidavits were filed, granted an immediate injunction which restrained him from disposing of any money, securities or real estate in Florida, and his wife was enjoined from disposing of his property.

Croker's son, Howard, made application as "next friend" for the appointment of a conservator, guardian or committee to take full charge of his father's $10,000,000 estate, including the show place Glenair, at Sandford County, Ireland, and his vast properties, valued alone at $2,000,000, at West Palm Beach.

According to the children's story, their warm-hearted father changed in a few months after his marriage to the Indian girl to a "morose, indifferent, feeble old man, with dyed hair, an absolute dependence on his new wife, and practically with hatred for all his blood kin." They accused Mrs. Croker of trying to alienate their father's affection so that she might be the recipient of his fortune.

Charges Denied.
All of these allegations were denied by Croker and his wife. At the first hearing he introduced evidence to prove that his wife was a Miss Beulah Benton Edmondson, born near Tahlequah, Cherokee Nation, in 1885. Her father was a Scotchman, he said, and her mother was the daughter of an Irishman and a Cherokee. On the Indians rolls Mrs. Croker's number was 15,728. She had studied music in Boston and become a teacher of music in New York when Croker met her at a dinner and reception.

After a temporary injunction had been granted the children, the circuit court appointed Dr. Ralph N. Green, formerly in charge of the medical staff of the Florida State Hospital for the Insane, as chairman of a commission to test Croker. The specialists made an examination of his blood and other specimens, studied and conversed with Croker for eight consecutive hours, and rendered a technical report that they found no evidences of mental deterioration.

"On the contrary," said Dr. Green, "we found a wealth of maturity and vigor."

CHILDREN SEE
FATHER SHOOT
DOWN MOTHER

Pollock, South Dakota, Man Believed to Have Been Dranged by Illness

NEIGHBORS ARE CALLED

Children Remain all Night in House After Shooting Before Calling Aid

Pollock, S. D., June 17.—Two little children, four and six years of age, witnessed a horrible crime here when their father, Thor Thorsen, shot his wife, Ethel, and then turned the weapon on himself.

When neighbors broke into the home they found Thorsen dead and his wife still living, but she was sinking rapidly and died before proper medical aid could be secured in an effort to save her life.

Stay in Home.
The shooting occurred yesterday evening in the home. The two little children were so terrified by the shouting that they were afraid to leave the house, remaining there all night. This morning they called to neighbors. The father, it is said, had been dead for some time.

Thorsen is believed to have shot his wife and taken his own life in a temporary fit of insanity. He had been ill for some time. His wife, a highly respected and intelligent woman, formerly taught school at Pollock.

The children are being cared for by neighbors.

CLERK ACCUSED OF MURDER WILL MAKE BIG FIGHT

Relatives of William Gummer, Accused of Fargo Crime, Come to Aid

HE ALONE IS SUSPECTED

States Attorney Denies That Arrest of Clerk is Merely Blind

Fargo, June 17.—Relatives of William Gummer, night clerk of the local hotel in which Maria Wick, 18, was murdered last week, are prepared to wage a big legal battle in his behalf.

Declaration that the 22-year-old boy is innocent was made by Attorney Brickner, for the defense, who declared that Gummer had "voluntarily and willingly assisted the authorities to his fullest power," and that "he has perfect confidence in the outcome. Rumors of his confession are absolutely false."

States Attorney Green denied that the arrest of Gummer was a blind permit authorities to hunt down other men suspected of the murder.

"The state is now working on its case against Gummer alone, and against no other person," declared Mr. Green. "Of course I cannot discuss the nature of the evidence we have against the prisoner at this time and thus try the case in the newspapers, but we're absolutely sure we have the right man. We are now at work gathering up the evidence we have against William Gummer and this will be presented at the hearing."

Yesterday the states attorney issued a statement that no finger prints had been secured in the room that proved of any value. He indicated that he expects to convict Gummer on other evidence. It was admitted that this evidence is more or less circumstantial.

"We made several attempts to photograph and develop the finger prints secured in the room where the crime was committed but failed," said Mr. Green yesterday. "To the eye excellent finger prints of the assassin were found on the arm of the murdered girl but because of the pores in the skin these could not be developed. The finger prints on the wall were too smeared up to show any definite lines and so were of no value as evidence."

"The photographs of the finger prints were sent to Minneapolis in the hope that something could be made of them there but we received the final report this morning that it had been fruitless. While we were trying to develop these we took finger prints of a large number of people connected with the investigation in the hope that we would have something with which to compare them later on. But now finger prints will not figure as evidence in this case at all."

Gummer's hearing has been set for June 21 at 10 a. m. He is being held in the county jail without bail. Reports from Mayville yesterday stated that no one who knows William Gummer and his family believes that he can be guilty of the crime. William was born and raised on a farm near Mayville and has always had a splendid reputation. His neighbors claim.

Mrs. Morris Gummer, of Mayville, arrived in Fargo yesterday to comfort her son and lend what aid she can in providing for his defense.

Scores of Americans Are Stripped of Clothing, Passports, It Is Said

APPEALS TO WASHINGTON

Consul-General Asks That Demand Be Made on Greek Government

Smyrna, June 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—American citizens are being impressed into the Greek army by agents of the Athens government and George Horton, United States consul-general here, has made a vigorous protest to Governor-General Steriades. For many months Americans, even men who served in the army in France, have been taken forcibly from their homes or from vessels arriving from the United States and compelled to join the Greek forces.

Thrown in Jail.

There have been scores of such cases in Athens, Smyrna and Salaki and only those able to escape and get into communication with American consular officials have obtained redress. In many instances they have been stripped of their clothing and their passports and other papers have been confiscated. When they have protested it is charged that they have been handcuffed, thrown into jails and mistreated.

Consul-General Horton declares this action by the Greek authorities is in flagrant violation of existing agreements between the United States and Greece granting military exemption to persons naturalized as American citizens prior to February, 1914, and those who, although naturalized since that time, have served with the American army or navy.

Will Shelter Them.

Consul-General Horton has informed Governor-General Steriades that such contravention of American rights threatens the good relations existing between the two countries and he declares he will shelter all aggrieved persons in the American consulate until given guarantees that their rights and liberties will be respected.

Governor-General Steriades has repeatedly promised to remedy the situation but despite his efforts arrests of Americans continue. Mr. Horton has appealed to Washington to make a peremptory demand upon the Greek government to discontinue this branch of the agreement existing between the two countries.

MUSIC FORCE IN EVERY LIFE

Salt Lake City, Utah, June 16.—Music has become a force and not an adjunct in the life of every American citizen, Anna Faulkner Oberndorfer, Chicago, national music chairman of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, declared in an address here today at the federation's Great Salt Lake Council.

"We Americans have had the wrong attitude regarding music for so long that it is difficult for us to grasp quickly the full realization of its power," she said. "As a nation we have treated music as a thing apart from, instead of a part of, our daily life. It is not so many years ago that the average American business man was all but ashamed to acknowledge a love for music."

"Now a chance has come. If we review the pages of musical history we will find that the greatest growth in music always follows some great war. The pre-war status of music in America will never return."

Mrs. Oberndorfer urged daily music hours in the homes during which the folk songs of America will be sung. Music memory contests should be started in every community by women's clubs, she declared.

The speaker declared many large industries, which started community sings for employees during war times, were forced to forbid the singing of "jazz" music in their factories.

"Jazz" music, she said, "in its original form was used as accompaniment to the Voodoo ceremonies by which the uneducated and almost barbaric aroused all his vilest and most sensuous nature."

ROTARY CLUBS OF SCOTLAND GET BANNER

Edinburgh, Scotland, June 16.—Rev. M. Ashby Jones, of Atlanta, Ga., today presented a banner to the Rotary Club of Scotland at the international convention of Rotarians as a token of American good will.

In presenting the gift he praised the spirit of Rotarians which he said was to serve the world—not to be served. The spirit, he said, was beginning to pervade, with its subtle beauty and irresistible force, the life of civilization.

"Rotary," he said, "must represent human life with its eager enterprises, its vaulting ambitions and the divine yearnings and aspirations of its great, throbbing heart."

"In this interpretation I have placed my emphasis upon the idea of representation. To my mind this is the genius of our English democracy. The Continental democracy of the eighteenth century and the infantile cries of democracy in eastern Europe today are intensely individualistic. It is a babel of conflicting cries—confusion worse confounded—each uttering the language of his own need, unconscious of the needs of others."

"But if democracy ever pauses with individual assertion—no matter how fine may be the primary instinct of liberty which gave it utterance—it can only exchange tyranny for anarchy."

"We have dared to cross the ocean to deliver to you a message from America. And we dare affirm that, better than any political party or any purely commercial organization, are we fitted to express our national spirit."

"Rotary is American. But Rotary is just as truly British: Men of Glasgow, this flag which I present to you is never so beautiful nor so meaningful as when it stands, as it does today, where it can reflect the rich, regal red of your Union Jack while, at the same time, it can catch the light of the radiant stars of Old Glory. Nor can its spirit and principles find a perfect expression in the life of men until they can find a perfect translation in the language of the English-speaking democracies of the world."

NOTED BACHELOR RECTOR HAS REASON FOR WANTING TO LIVE TO BE 85

The Waif in the Rectory

FAITH WILLARD

By Newspaper Enterprise.
New York, June 16. (The Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant has an incentive to live to be 85.

"Wasn't so a few weeks ago. He was 69, a bachelor pastor of the great stone church of the Ascension, famous as a clergyman, orator, historian and author. There seemed little left to be attained; Dr. Grant could justly feel that he had lived a full life and was ready for the call.

DR. GRANT
Today Dr. Grant still is 69 and a bachelor (crowded by success and fame but he has a baby in his house. And Dr. Grant feels it will take about 25 years to start that baby safely on life's journey.

Dr. Grant stumbled across a bundle in his vestibule late one evening in May. Someone had deserted it there. "As I stepped over the bundle it seemed to move," he says. "Looming down, I saw a baby's hand protruding from one corner. "I was a little afraid to touch a baby. I am a bachelor and a lonely man and I feared I might hurt this little one, so I called my housekeeper, Miss Graham. She carried the bundle to my study.

"Baby in Our Midst"
"We found we had a little unannounced girl in our midst. It seemed as though God had sent me a little child. In the package were dainty baby clothes, all of expensive material, all hand-embroidered. "In a clear, beautiful hand the mother of this baby had written a brief note on a sheet of expensive note paper, asking us to care for it. That was all. There was no other clue. It was after midnight; the stores were closed. We couldn't say the baby a bottle and we were at our wits' end.

"I summoned a noted doctor and he said the child was less than 10 days old, was of premature birth, but was apparently of good lineage. He showed us how to feed baby with a spoon, but it was a cruel ordeal. "That night was the most exciting of my life. I retired immediately and Mrs. Graham tried in vain to quiet the little one. About 1 o'clock I arose and relieved her. "From then on until 9, I just padded through the house, carrying baby and trying to act like a father. "At 9 o'clock the doctor sent me an experienced baby nurse and our troubles were over. The Department of Charities and the Police Department gave me permission to keep baby temporarily.

"Faith Willard"
"A day later I took the little one into the church proper and christened her 'Faith Willard.' It is a family name, and a name that bespeaks good fortune.

"I don't know whether I'll adopt Faith. Perhaps so. I am a lonely man. I am 69 years old, and this innocent little girl has been sent to me. She might die in an institution. Too many babies die that way."

So Faith nestles in the luxury of soft rose-pink in a new baby carriage at the rectory. She pokes a fat finger into her mouth and coos and gurgles contentedly.

An occasional cry echoes through the rectory heretofore unbroken by a baby's cries. And the lonely bachelor pastor who was wont to look upon life in retrospect dream now of the years to come.

CONGRESSMEN FORM BODY

Veterans' Association Is Launched by Men Who Served in Various Wars.

The old spirit of the A. E. F. and of America's war-time army, navy and marine corps broke out in the halls of the nation's congress in Washington the other day, when veterans of the World war who are members of congress, joined by members who served in the Civil and Spanish-American wars, held a big meeting and a regular feed at the University club and formed "The Veterans' Association of the Sixty-seventh Congress."

Two members of the United States senate and 32 members of the house of representatives attended the dinner gathering which resulted in the organization of the congressional veterans into a body. Twenty-six of the members of the house of representatives in attendance were veterans of the World war and members of the American Legion. Representative Henry Z. Osborne of the Ninth California district, a veteran of the Civil war, acted as toastmaster. He felicitated the country upon the formation of the American Legion, saying that the "vets of '01" were willing and proud to turn the reins of patriotic endeavor over to the "boys of '17."

In addition to choosing Congressman Roy G. Fitzgerald of Ohio, president of the association, and Congressman John E. Rankin of Mississippi as secretary, and getting away with an elaborate course dinner billed in the still familiar doughboy French of "over there," the congressional veterans listened to a careful explanation of the legislative program of the American Legion in congress made by John Thomas Taylor, vice chairman of the national legislative committee of the Legion, who was a special guest of honor and the only person present not a member of congress. Mr. Taylor went into detailed advocacy of the consolidation, vocational training, hospitalization and emergency relief retirement bills proposed by the Legion.

The knitted frock is the little lady's newest conceit. Like the one shown, these dresses are always plain, quite void of trimming, depending entirely on the material and weave for ornamentation. The medium is sometimes wool, or if a finer dress is desired, there are the silk and wool combinations or the heavy, whole silk thread.

GIRLS! LEMONS WHITEN THE SKIN

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin. Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

SASHE'S DARE TO BE CAPRICIOUS

Sashes dare to be capricious, thus this one, worn by Leatrice Joy, Goldwyn actress (left), ties in a huge butterfly bow at the front. The gown is trimmed generously with beads and is very irregular as to line. When a frock like that at the right finds its ornamentation in its own material, then does it seek extreme simplicity of line as does this gown of Martha Mansfield (Seznick), which is hyacinth blue over pink with a silver tissue belt. Taupe chiffon heavily beaded in medallion designs or an embroidered chateau foundation is the material used in the fashioning of the center frock worn by Betty Comson, Paramount pictures (center.)

TO BLEACH
A good way to bleach white material which has become darkened by soot is to soak it over night in water into which there has been put a teaspoon of cream of tartar.

MILLINERY
For millinery, jet and steel ornaments are being shown. Large medallions of solid sheets of jet are trimmed with strings of jet or steel beads.

COMBINATION
Gray and brown, which you used to believe you could not combine, are being combined now in some of the smartest of dresses for fall street wear.

Take a Trip to the Pacific Northwest
OREGON, WASHINGTON and BRITISH COLUMBIA
and in this one section of the United States and Canada you will see more than Europe has to offer.

Thirty Switzerlands in One—in your Own Home Land!

THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST with its snow-capped mountain ranges and peaks thirty times the area of Switzerland, two thousand miles of inland seas as beautiful as the Mediterranean, a rugged sea coast exceeding in grandeur the fjords of Norway, enchanting lakes, leaping cascades, mighty rivers, mountain streams, National Parks and Forest Reserves, is the most gorgeous scenic region in America. There are thirty-eight golf courses and thousands of streams filled with every variety of trout.

IT IS THE RICHEST SECTION OF THE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT. It has the greatest fisheries in the world, from whence come all the famous brands of canned salmon. This king of fishes is taken right out of the water, placed in cans and served on your breakfast table in perfect condition, and with all the delicacy of this splendid fish.

IT IS where the finest prunes and berries are produced, ALL KINDS OF BERRIES, strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, cranberries and loganberries, grown to their perfection in this temperate climate, continuous sunshine and a proper amount of moisture, shipped everywhere, beautifully fresh for table use, or preserved perfectly as the Pacific Northwest Canners know how to preserve everything for future use. It is where the best, the juiciest and the reddest apples are grown, now looked upon both in Europe and America as the finest table and cooking apples on the market.

IT IS where the giant fir, hemlock and cedar trees are grown, in the greatest forests known to man, containing twelve hundred million feet of standing timber, some of the trees are 300 feet high, and have taken eight hundred years to grow.

IT IS A LAND OF AGRICULTURE, growing as fine wheat as can be produced anywhere on earth, one farmer's check for one season's crop being $250,000. It is a land of dairying, the contented cow, supporting some of the largest condense milk industries in the world.

HOME BREW
Home brewers in America are using 16,000 tons of raisins a year, a raisin king tells the Senate.
That seems a lot. But it's small compared with the 60 per cent of our corn crop which went to make whisky only a few years ago, according to the prohibition people.
Drinking is on the wane. Booze will gradually die out. Two generations from now, few people will know what it tastes like.

GIRL GRADS
High schools in many cities report twice as many girls as boys in the graduation classes.
Are we on the verge of a time when women will make up the predominating part of our educated class?
In women's clubs, the ladies are discussing serious social and governmental problems. In men's clubs, the talk runs to hootch, baseball, stock market gambling and the Dempsey-Carpentier fight.

LOST
Out of every 100 articles lost on trains by passengers only 32 ever are called for by owners, says the Long Island road.
If the crew finds anything you leave on a street car, it is turned in at headquarters and can be had if you call and identify it. Strange are the lost articles—including baby buggies and market baskets. You wonder how any one could forget them.
Theodore Roosevelt once heard a musician, arguing with a conductor, say: "Couldn't lose my ticket? Why, I lost a bass drum last week."

DIVORCED
Number of American cities run by city managers instead of mayors now totals 223. Cities have had mayors for centuries, and old ideas die hard. The city manager, aimed to put towns on a business basis divorced from politics, is a new idea that's going strong.
Bismarck people are wondering if they'd be better off under a city manager.
No city that has adopted the manager plan by popular vote has as yet returned to the old system. Kalamazoo is the only one considering doing so.

FOR GRADUATES
We don't know how many thousands of graduates are just now starting on "the threshold of life."
Walk right in, dear children. When you pass the threshold you will find no velvet carpets. There's a long, long stairway for you to climb and you must watch your step.
It is one of those trick stairways, this that starts at the threshold of life. There are collapsible steps that cause you to slip back unless you keep your wits.
As you go up you will see many climbers falling. Some of them having fallen, stay at the bottom and never try to get up again. Others start over bravely. Some make the climb slowly, but surely. Others make it two steps at a time. Emulate them if you have the capacity, but have a care lest in your eagerness you make a misstep.
You may go as far as you can up the stairway. There is no end to it, and the higher you go, the more pleasing does it become.
Good luck to you, children-on-the-threshold-of-life. And may you have a long climb and a joyous one.

THE BAD HABIT OF EXTRAVAGANCE
Habits are our most relentless taskmasters. This is especially true of bad habits.
One of the worst of bad habits which got the government by the throat during the war was extravagance.
In spite of the more or less sincere efforts to get rid of this habit during the past two and a half years, it must be admitted that not enough progress has been made to be visible to the naked eye.
One of the chief difficulties seems to be that many of the people back home who talk loudly of the necessity for government economy are constantly bringing pressure on the government, either as individuals or as members of organizations, to spend large sums for this, that or the other unnecessary purpose.
Senator Pomerene, for example, recently thanked a constituent for writing him urging that government expenses be reduced. The senator said that he had received hundreds of letters urging him to vote for bills calling for big appropriations of public money, but that this was the first letter of the other character he had received.

The senator added that the more pressure for economy brought to bear in official Washington, the sooner the bad habit of extravagance would be overcome.
Continued extravagance means continued high taxation, which is the price the public pays for its indifference in a matter which vitally concerns every man, woman and child in the nation.

SPORTY DRESSERS
French corset makers are starving, says the head of their trade in Paris. The corset is on the wane. He urges men to wear these near-straight-jackets.
A ridiculous idea, most men will say.
Yet up to a century ago, women were saner than men about fashions. In 1700, Englishmen starched their beards. A hundred years before that, England passed a law that no man could wear shoes wider than six inches at the toes. Then the men adopted shoes with points so long that they had to be tied to the knees.

THE FINAL GREAT OBJECTIVE
Within a year a world congress of women leaders in commerce, finance, agriculture, industry, education and government will be held in either Washington, Geneva, or The Hague.
This announcement has been made by Mrs. Katherine Clemmons Gould, president of the Woman's International Chamber of Commerce.
This congress promises to be one of the milestones in the rapid progress which the women of the world have made during the past half dozen years in realizing their ambition to achieve a real place in the sun.
We can imagine nothing that would be more potent in furthering the cause of a better understanding among nations, leading eventually to world peace, than annual conferences of the world's leading women.
Whatever the immediate object of bringing them together, this would surely become the final great objective.

PLAY BALL, HIBBING!
The police department of Hibbing, "the world's richest village," is letting itself in for a hard job. The police announce they are going to put a stop to the Hibbing boys' ball playing in the streets.
It is a problem which has bothered more police departments than Hibbing's. For one thing, the street players are young. For another thing, ball playing, from "One Old Cat" of yesterday down to kittenball of today, has become one of the senses of the American boy, among the elements that have gone into his makeup since the Creator put five utilitarian senses there. He will play baseball, and if the street is the only place he can find to play it in, then the street it is for him.
Of course, the motive of these Hibbing police is good, just as is the motive of all who seek to foster safety in the streets in these automobile days. But why should the richest village in the world, where paving is commonplace, where free municipal busses are provided for blueberry pickers, where all manner of public service is carried on on a lavish scale—why should the richest village in the world have overlooked provision for the kids to play baseball, elsewhere than in the street? There ought to be a municipal baseball diamond every few blocks. There should be municipal grounds for every other form of play, established and maintained by the rich village.
A village that takes heed of public improvements in the fashion that is Hibbing's boast has overlooked an opportunity. It should look after the youngsters.
And yet, it isn't to be wondered at. The truth of it is, recreation as a boon to society hasn't yet come into the civic ken. Or, if it has, it hasn't reached to the taxpayer's ken. By force of circumstances, the taxpayer's civic ken has not yet gone beyond the utilitarian stage. But the light is growing brighter every day. Who knows but Hibbing, finding itself baffled so far as the kids in the streets are concerned, may yet seize the torch and light the way of other municipalities to recreational departments and plants on a highway to better citizenship? That is what is to be attained, for the striving, from recreation.—Minneapolis Tribune.

MANDAN NOTES

Mandan Team Takes Flasher Into Camp
The Mandan ball team romped all over the diamond in the Mandan-Flasher game at Flasher on Wednesday, and turned in a score of 17-3. Mandan's heavy hitting was a feature of the game, McGovern knocking a home run, and nearly every one getting a few hits. The new third baseman, Higge played clever baseball and made a good impression on his first appearance. Dorfer pitcher, Chuck Russell playing in the outfield.
Mandan played practically an errorless game, in spite of a heavy muddy field due to the heavy rain at Flasher Wednesday morning. A number of Mandan fans accompanied the team, there being at least twenty-five cars making the trip.

HONORS FOR EXPERT ON ANIMAL HUSBANDRY

J. H. Sheppard of the Agricultural College, accompanied by Max Morgan, former county agent at Mandan were in Mandan on Thursday, being on their way from Flasher to New Salem, where they will take part in the Holstein Association picnic.
Professor Sheppard, who is in charge of the State Experimental Station at the A. C., has recently had a most signal honor conferred upon him in commendation of the wonderful constructive work he has accomplished in animal husbandry. He was asked to sit to the portrait painter, Arvin Nyholm for a portrait, which is to hang in the Saddle and Sirocin galleries in Chicago. This is also in recognition of the fact that he has been in charge of all livestock judging teams at the International Livestock shows since 1905.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
By Olive Barton Roberts

It did seem as though nobody wanted Jack Frost around, for no sooner had Nick read the letters that Scramble Squirrel and Ben Bunny had written to Mr. Sprinkle-Blow, the Weatherman, than Nancy held up another she had found in the fairyman's mail-box. And when Sprinkle-Blow asked her please to open and read it, wasn't it from Robin Redbreast, and this is what he said:
"DEAR MR. SPRINKLE-BLOW: When I came up from the south to fix up my summer home in the old apple tree, I was as sure as anything that Jack Frost had gone for good. Mind you I left the warmest, sunniest, grandest place you ever saw to come here and see my old friends. Besides, Mrs. Robin wanted to see the world. But every time Mr. Sun warms up the ground and the fat juicy earthworms come up to the top where we can grab 'em, doesn't Jack Frost come sneaking along and freeze up the ground hard as stone again, and we can't make a decent living at all. My yellow bill is nearly worn out. So if you please, Mr. Weatherman, will you lock up Jack for good 'n' all and give the worms a chance? Also give us a chance at the worms."
"Another thing! We can't bring up a family with Jack watching his chance to give the babies pneumonia. So if you can manage it, Mr. Sprinkle-Blow, and even if you can't will you please get him out of this neighborhood?"
"Yours very hungrily, 'ROBIN R. REDBREAST.'"
"Lemon lollipops!" groaned Sprinkle-Blow, looking more worried than ever. "There it is again! Jack Frost is down there now on the earth and dear knows what he's doing. Are there any more letters?"
"My goodness, yes!" answered Nancy reaching away down in the mail-box. "Stacks of them!"

DULUTH WOMAN CAN'T HELP BUT PRAISE TANLAC

"I'm In The Best of Health Since Taking Tanlac," Declares Mrs. Schmaus

"After getting the wonderful relief I have from Tanlac, I just can't help praising it," said Mrs. J. Schmaus, 522 East Seventh St., Duluth, Minn. Mrs. Schmaus has resided in Duluth for many years and is highly esteemed by a large circle of friends.
"At the time I began taking it I was in a very poor state of health. My appetite was gone, and what little I did eat just left me feeling miserable for hours. I had awful headaches that made me so sick I didn't know what to do and at times even the sight of food would nauseate me, and after working around and preparing a meal I was nearly ready to drop and couldn't eat a mouthful."
"Well, my husband had taken Tanlac with good results, so I started taking it myself and in almost no time I was picking up right along. My appetite is fine now, I enjoy all my meals and feel well and strong all the time. In fact I'm in the best of health and think Tanlac is just grand."

REPORT CROP DAMAGE.

CROKER BACK TO END "30 YEARS' WAR"

soundness of judgment, coupled with an excellent state of physical and mental preservation."

Circuit Judge E. B. Donnell thereupon rendered a decision in which the court found Mr. Croker "sane and competent to manage his own affairs in Florida," and the temporary injunction was dissolved. This was on July 12.

Three days later the Crokers sailed for Ireland, but before they could board ship, they were served with papers in the six cases now pending.

Years of Turmoil.

Croker told of years of domestic turmoil, of the relinquishment of a fortune to his first wife and their children, of subsequent financial embarrassment and of appealing in vain to his son, Richard, Jr.

He spoke pathetically of his dead son, Frank, as the only one of his offspring who really wanted to use me right.

He said the present Mrs. Croker believed she was marrying a poor man, and added that when later he was ill in bed, she, on her own initiative, made a profit of $50,000 for him.

He explained that he had been involved in a constant domestic wrangle for thirty years, and that he finally came to a partial settlement of it by agreeing with his first wife, through their son, Richard Croker, Jr., that he would allow her and their children an income of $35,000 a year.

He turned over to his son, as trustee, he said, securities that would produce an annual income of about $25, 000, and the remaining $7,000 was to be made up by him. This sum, to a total of $35,000 annually, Croker said he continued to pay to the end. Mrs. Croker's death occurring in 1914.

"Then," he said, "the trouble began."

Through the suits now pending Croker's children seek to recover money and property which they allege is due them.

Born in Ireland.

Croker was born in Clonakilly, County Cork, Ireland, on Nov. 23, 1841. Brought to the United States when seven he was educated in the public schools of New York and later became a machinist.

In 1865 he entered politics, and was elected an alderman in 1868, 1870 and 1883.

From 1873 to 1879 he was a New York common, and from 1889 to 1899 he was city chamberlain.

During his administration of this office he became the pronounced opponent of the Tweed ring and in a series of the most bitter political fights ever staged in America, Croker finally beat Tweed for renomination as leader of Tammany, and was elected chief thereof.

After he resigned he returned to Ireland, still retaining his American citizenship, and was granted the freedom of Dublin in 1907.

WANT U. S. ACTION.

Denver, June 17.—A special committee of five to investigate unemployment and possible congressional relief was authorized today by the convention of the American Federation of Labor. The resolution declared that "Congress should appropriate money in peace-times for necessary public work and when a panic developed there would be work for the unemployed."

The resolution calling for an investigation of a "seamen's lock-out" declared it was necessary "so that American people may know the truth; that action may be taken to thwart the international conspiracy and that the hope and purpose of America to obtain its proper share in the world sea power er may be protected and realized." "Union bating is now used," said the resolution, "as a smoke screen to hide the real purpose of the international ship owners, which purpose is to drive the American seamen from the sea and American vessels from the ocean."

GIRL GETS SERVICE MEDAL

Emblem Presented to New York High School Miss in Recognition of Patriotic Work.

As a tribute to her patriotic services during the World war, Miss Pauline Henkel, a fourteen-year old New York high school girl, was presented with a patriotic service gold medal by F. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the American Legion, in behalf of S. Rankin Drew post. The presentation ceremonies took place in front of the Fifth Avenue public library in New York city.

The guard of honor for Miss Henkel, who is known as the "Little Colonel," was composed of members of the marine corps under command of lieutenants Miller and Gumpertz and Sergeant Janssen, congressional medal of honor man.

Although she was only ten years old at the start of the World war, the Little Colonel sold $8,380,250 worth of Liberty bonds, more than any other minor in the country, and also was recognized as one of the most effective patriotic speakers and war workers in America.

With the return of the American soldiers to their native land, Miss Henkel is still devoting herself to their welfare, as attested by the following quotation from her speech of acceptance:

"The happiest moment of my life will be when it is a fact that the wounded, disabled and unemployed of our boys, have been taken care of in a manner befitting the sacrifices they have made. The cause of the disabled

Legion man is legislator

California Member of National Executive Committee Also Serves as Maker of Laws.

Although he was forty-one years old when the World war started, Charles H. Kendrick of San Francisco, Cal., member of the national executive committee of the American Legion, served with distinction in the army, and was elected by General Sammis, commander of the Fifth Army corps, "for display of exceptional devotion to duty while under bombardment by the enemy's guns" during the Meuse-Argonne offensive.

Mr. Kendrick was educated in the public schools of San Francisco and engaged in the selling of real estate and development of agricultural lands. Commissioned a captain in the Reserve service in August, 1917, Mr. Kendrick trained at Camp Dix, N. J., and was sent overseas in July, 1918 attached to the Twenty-sixth division as a company officer. He served with that division during the St. Mihiel drive, and at the opening of the Meuse-Argonne push was made regimental officer of the 17th Army corps. After the armistice he was promoted to major and discharged from service in February, 1919.

Mr. Kendrick's devotion to Legion affairs during the time he was a member of the state executive committee led to his election as representative of California to the national body.

Press Women Are Interested.

The Women's Press club of New York city has become interested in American Legion welfare work and has adopted a ward at Fox Hills hospital, Staten Island, New York, containing 65 disabled veterans. The club's committee visits the hospital with a work supplying the men with articles of clothing, tobacco and reading matter. An Men sponsored by the club or providing "gardenettes" or whist boxes for the various hospitals where ex-service men are being treated has become popular with relief organizations. The school children of Leontine N. J., collected funds and bought a window box for the hospital.

Virginia Auxiliary Convention.

The last convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the Virginia Department of the American Legion will be held May 13 and 14.

LEGION POST ADOPTS CREED

Member of Somerville (Mass.) Organization Is Author of Paragraphs Worthy of Consideration.

Somerville (Mass.) post of the American Legion has adopted the following creed, written by one of its members:

"I believe the American Legion is a dependable organization.

"I believe that the American Legion is a potent factor in the community.

"I believe that the American Legion stands for equality for all ex-service men.

"I believe that the American Legion's ideas never will be shelved.

"I believe that the American Legion will gallantly stand by what is right and help to destroy what is wrong.

"I believe that the American Legion's principles are inviolable by any violent or radical individual or organization.

"I believe that the American Legion will help to bring peace out of chaos.

"I believe that the American Legion is looking forward, not backward.

"I believe that the American Legion is a constructive unit, not a destructive unit.

"I believe that the American Legion is an asset to ex-service men, not a liability.

"I believe it. Do you?"

Sets 40,000 Members as Goal.

With 24,000 members at the end of 1920, Kansas department of the American Legion has set 40,000 Legionnaires as its goal for 1921. The state has a potential membership of 60,000. The department now numbers 314 posts of the Legion and 103 units of the Women's Auxiliary.

HE'S TYPICAL LEGION WORKER

Connecticut Man Is Chosen Department Adjutant for Period of Three Years.

Thomas J. Bannigan has received the unique distinction of being elected adjutant of the Connecticut department of the American Legion for a period of three years. He is also in charge of the service division at department headquarters.

Mr. Bannigan was born in Utica, N. Y. He received his education in schools of that city and in Georgetown Academy. He came to New Britain, Conn., 25 years ago and in 1911 moved to Hartford where he is engaged in the wholesale and retail cigar business.

During the war Mr. Bannigan served as a captain. Returning to Hartford at the end of the war, he gave his efforts to revitalizing his business. In February, 1919, when the city of Hartford needed a capable man to direct its Soldiers, Sailors and Marines' club, Mr. Bannigan was asked to take the job. Despite the call of his business, he abandoned it again, through patriotic motives, to supervise the club.

THOMAS J. BANNIGAN.

A record-maker in the formation and organization of Rau-Locke post No. 8, Mr. Bannigan soon became one of the most prominent Legionnaires in the state and was elected as the first state adjutant. Department headquarters had been without a permanent location, using a room in the Service club as quarters. Mr. Bannigan prevailed upon the city authorities to turn the building over to the Legion.

Mr. Bannigan is also a member of the national committee on war risk insurance and compensation and is chairman of the Hartford Elks' national soldiers' fund committee.

TO TURN HOSPITAL TO STATE

Texas Department of American Legion to Relinquish Control of Kerrville Institution.

The Texas department of the American Legion is completing arrangements to turn the Legion Memorial hospital at Kerrville over to the state, in order that the provisions of the bill appropriating $1,500,000 to expand the institution to a capacity of 600 tubercular patients, passed by the state legislature, may be carried out.

The Legion will maintain its hospital organization, which will co-operate with the state health officer, the superintendent of the state tuberculosis sanitarium and the chairman of the state board of control, the officers designated to supervise the expenditure of the appropriation.

Charles W. Scruggs, state adjutant of the Legion, has expressed the appreciation of the ex-service men as follows:

"The governor of the great State of Texas has met our expectations and I am firmly convinced has only consummated the sentiment of the people of Texas by signing the Legion Memorial hospital bill. The Legion is proud to share with the governor and with the legislature our inordinate pride in the consummation of this splendid endeavor and fulfillment of our fundamental duty to Texas' disabled ex-service men."

Kansas Passes Laws for Legion.

That the voice of the ex-service men of Kansas, as represented by the American Legion, has been heard is manifested by the generous enactment of legislation beneficial to veterans of the World war. The legislature of that state has passed the following bills affecting ex-service men: An adjusted compensation bill, in the form of an enabling act; an act granting to all ex-service men of the World war the same rights, privileges and immunities granted to veterans of other wars; an appropriation of $1,000 a year for general expenses of state headquarters of the Legion; an act protecting the Legion and Auxiliary emblems from unauthorized use; exemption from taxation of all property held in the name of the Legion; an act placing under the care of Legion posts erring young boys paroled from industrial schools; and a boxing bill.

Eight Bars on Victory Medal. George Leander, a member of Argentine Post of the American Legion at Des Moines, Ia., has eight bars on his Victory medal.

Werner Crops Good

J. H. Schriber, Dunn county rancher, was a visitor in Bismarck yesterday. Mr. Schriber has over 3,200 acres in crop this year and says he never saw a better stand of grain. He purchased a new Oakland Six from the distributors and left this morning, with his family for a trip into Iowa.

BELMONT GIRLS JOIN IN "SPLASH"

The daughters of Mrs. August Belmont, Jr., took advantage of the free swimming course by the Red Cross during New York's "Splash" week. Alice is shown teaching Cecilia to swim, while Barbara watches.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Leisure misused, an idle hour waiting to be employed, idle hands waiting with no occupation, idle and empty minds with nothing to think of—these are the main temptations to evil. Fill up that empty void, employ those vacant hours, occupy those listless hands—the world is desperately in need of earnest workers—then evil will depart because it has no place to enter, because it is conquered by good.—Dean Stanley.

GOOD THINGS FOR THE TABLE.

When the ordinary foods lose their interest try these:

Italian Round Steak.—Put two pounds of round steak and two ounces of beef suet through a meat chopper; add one-fourth of a cupful of breadcrumbs, a teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper, one tablespoonful of grated onion, two well-beaten eggs; mix well and form together into balls the size of an egg. Simmer together one cup of tomatoes, one cupful of water, one onion, one clove of garlic, one green pepper sliced fine, two cloves, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one teaspoonful of salt, a small pinch of dry leaf; after one-half hour press through a sieve. Reheat in a shallow dish; when hot lay in the balls, cover and simmer one hour. Have ready two-thirds of a package of elbow macaroni cooked tender in salted water, drained and rinsed in water. Lift the meat balls from the dish to the center of the serving dish, surround the meat with the macaroni, pour the sauce over the macaroni, then sprinkle with half a cupful of grated cheese. Garnish with rings of green peppers.

Jellied Fruit Salad.—Soften one ounce, or two and one-half tablespoonfuls, of gelatin in half a cupful of water, and dissolve in one cupful of boiling water; add two-thirds of a cupful of sugar, the juice of half a lemon, one cupful of pineapple juice, and stir until the sugar is dissolved; set the liquid into a dish of ice water, and when it begins to thicken stir in six slices of canned pineapple cut in small wedge-shaped bits and two-thirds of a cupful of token grapes cut in halves and seeded.
